President's report

Also the club repeater has been updated and will soon be moved to a new site at the Charlottetown water tower.

Members and friends entered the RAC 150 contest operating from the club station and the VY2RAC call was shared with Ken VY2RU who operated at his home in Clinton. Dave feels that there was over a 1,000 contacts made by the two stations.

Moved by Charles, seconded by Richard that the financial report be approved.
Motion carried.

Correspondence:

Secretary advised we had email from RAC with a copy of our insurance certificate for 2018 attached and email from Dave advising about the Canada 150 event.

New business:

Dave spoke on getting invitation to Charlottetown trade show and that the Summerside club is consideration a winter field day.

Dave asked that we consider selling the present club radios (4) and buying one new or used radio that would have a computer connection.

Brent adjourned the meeting at 7:45 PM.
