President's report.

Dave commented on the EMO committee of Bill VY2WM and William VY2CAW and their work organizing a video conference net.

Dave spoke about visiting Jeff VY2ZM and his wife VY2HH at their place in Monticello. Also that PEI was well represented at the SMART Symposium in Springhill. George VY2GF did a great job of organizing the event.

On a personal note, my 1952 military jeep project is progressing well. My hope is to bring it to the next meeting.

Correspondence:

Secretary advised that we had email from RAC advising of Marconi day on April 27. Also email from Amanda of Atlantic Screen Printing offering to do any of our printing needs.

New business:

William CAW said you can get iron on transfers to put on shirts at Staples that you can use with inkjet printers. William CAW to look into updating club logo.

Therese asked about having a social event at our June meeting, Bill WM said it may be better to have it in July and he may be able to host it at his cottage.

There was discussion having classes for new amateurs, it was suggested that it could be done in conjunction with the community school programs.

Locations of Field Day activation to be discussed at the June meeting.

Richard adjourned the meeting at 8:10 PM.
